The most interesting of all the letters of this letter writing campaign has been written by Davil Leahy, private secretary to Governor Stubbs, in reply to an attack made upon Leahy private secretary to Governor Stubbs, in reply to an attack made upon Leahy as one of the elect. Besides it became in nearly every state in the union. by ex-Governor Stanley last week. In this letter Mr. Leahy tells some more secrets about Stanley heretofore un-known and undreamed of by the younger set in politics today who have istened to the ex-governor's eloquent speeches lately. Stanley is branded in the Leaby epistle as the Dr. Cook of Kansas politics. His attention is called to the fact that he brought a Missouri Democrat over here and made him private secretary. He is reminded of the permocrat over here and made him private secretary. He is reminded of the time he asked the Leahy council regarding a proposition to buy 900 votes at 83 cents per head. In fact, the letter bristles with sensational disclosures about the ex-governor who had taken exceptions to a Damocrat like Dave sliting in the secretary's chair. Mr. Leahy has in addition garnished the dish with a smooth and polished rhetoric and a polite sarcasm that go to make it all the more effective as a campaign document of value. The let-

It is recognized by the leaders in the Republican congressional committee party patriotism that then prevailed. And so it was that I had great respect for his judgment when, in the flower of Republican congressional committee that the struggle this year will call for unusual exertions on the part of the committee. Every effort is going to be made to put a strong corps of speakers in the field. The leaders are to a large extent depending on Theodore Roosevelt. If he comes home, they say, and takes off his coat for the election of a Republican house, then everything will be all right. Otherwise—but they do not nermit themselves to be drawn into definite and almost universally accepted policies. In accepting Mr. Taft I did not permit themselves to be drawn into

Then, the committee will take steck of the laws which have gone through and the laws which have gone through and will proceed to get up the campaign text book and other literature. Chief emphasis will be laid on the tariff. Realizing that there is much protest against some phases of the tariff law and that the Democrats are going to make the most of this issue in the campaign, the Republican leaders will put up the best defense of the law they know how to.

The Democrats are going before the country mainly on the tariff, on the charge that the dominant forces in the Republican party are allied with the great special interests, on the charge of extravagance, and on the house rules question. The cost of living will be hammered on to the utmost degree

TODAY'S MARKET REPORTS

Chicago, June 2—WHEAT—Heavy selling today defeated an attempt to continue yesterday's bull movement in wheat. Opening prices were 160% to 1600 up. but gradually the advance was overcome and the market went a shade under last night's level. The initial strength was favored by frosty temperatures and lack of moisture in the spring crop sections and by reports of disapopinting demand for flour. Foreign quotations were also bullish. Much of the selling which rammed down prices was credited to a prominent local speculator who figured on the bear side of the May deal and was said to have brought considerable wheat here by steamer from Duluth.
